

MBAs and Family Business: Is There a Fit?

19 October 2011 6:00pm
Seminar Room AS01
Via Röntgen 1

Online registration required.
Please, answer a few questions to register.

Click here to take part in our online survey; it will only take a few minutes.

Since MBA profiles may represent an opportunity to bring new energy to the Italian economic system talent management is becoming a critical topic not only for multinational companies but also for SMEs. Are SMEs capable to attract and retain talents? Is family business a context where high potential profiles are well exploited? Are SMEs enough connected to the higher education environment? Are MBAs interested in working close to the owners?

Organized by

AldAF- Alberto Falck Chair
in Strategic Management
in Family Business

SDA Bocconi
School of Management

Bocconi
Alumni Association

Entrepreneur Club
SDA Bocconi

Gruppo Giovani
Imprenditori
Assolombarda

Associazione Italiana
delle Aziende Familiari

Speakers

Umberto Bussolati

Spencer Stuart, Partner

Paolo Matteini

Miroglio Group, CFO

Marta Spinelli

L'Isolante K-Flex Srl, Human Resources & Legal Dept. Director

Daniela Montemerlo

SDA Bocconi and University of Insubria

Paolo Morosetti

AldAF (Associazione Italiana delle Aziende Familiari)
and SDA Bocconi

Federico Bonacina

Entrepreneur Club Bocconi

Chair

Denny De Angelis

AldAF Alberto-Falck Chair and SDA Bocconi

Networking buffet at 7:45pm

For information please contact:

Denny De Angelis

AldAF- Alberto Falck Chair in Strategic Management in Family Business
cattedraidaffalck@unibocconi.it